

CARL MAYS, YANKEE PITCHER, SIGNS TWO-YEAR CONTRACT WITH CLUB

YANKEE PITCHER AGREES TO TERMS

Conferences With Col. Huston and Huggins Dispose of Differences.

MANAGER IS DELIGHTED

Sam Jones Now Club's Only Pitcher Outside the Fold.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 1.—After a series of conferences extending over last night and this morning, Carl Mays, master of the "submarine" ball, today signed a two-year contract with the Yankees. The terms of the agreement reached were not divulged, but it is understood that the pitcher will receive more than $10,000 a year for his labors on the mound.

The first of the series of conferences which led to Mays' surrender was with Manager Miller Huggins and lasted from 8 o'clock until about 10 o'clock last night. At this meeting Huggins outlined the position of the club officials and went over the same ground again at another talk with Mays this morning. A little later Mays was closeted with Col. T. L. Huston and the latter induced him to sign.

Huggins was delighted at this turn of events. "I don't know what we'd have done without Mays this year," he said. "He is unquestionably one of the greatest right-handers of recent years, and I have been banking heavily on him for the coming season. Now that he has signed we have only one pitcher—Sammy Jones—outside the fold. All the rest of them have signed."

After getting Mays' signature, Col. Huston went to work on Catcher Walter Schang, while Huggins entrained for New Orleans, where he is due to arrive to-morrow morning.

Robbie Gives Dodgers Long Fielding Drills

Brooklyn Team Also Has Six Inning Practice Game.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 1.—Manager Robbie and his assistant, Nap Rucker, sent the Dodgers through two more hard workouts here today. Robbie started both lessons by sending the vast army of pitchers through warming up exercises and then they were ordered to pitch to batters.

Among the pitchers who tossed to the batters were Leon Cadore and Hank Schreiber. It was the first time Cadore had decorated the slab this year, and he did not attempt to put anything on the ball.

Robbie closed the early session by putting his infielders through long fielding drills. He organized two sets of infield. The first, which was called the regulars, was composed of Schmandt on first, Rucker on second, Griffith at short, and Andy High at third. Uncle Robbie slapped out grounders to the athletes and many nifty stops were made. Olson Schmandt, who played in last fall, also did a number of plays from the others.

Crane showed that he is still a fielder of considerable ability. Several times he was forced to make difficult stops and few fumbles were charged against him. After the regulars finished their work the second infield combination took the field. It was made up of Rucker on first, Janvrit on second, Griffith at short, and McCarran on third. Post was once a pitcher, but last season he was converted into an infielder while playing in the International League. He is a left-handed thrower, and fields his position gracefully. McCarran at third showed up well.

Hank Deberry and Bernard Hurling, the two rookie backstops, are getting plenty of work. They show great promise and each one possesses an abundant supply of pep. One of them will be retained by the Dodgers.

In the afternoon session Robbie divided his group of players into two teams and a practice game which lasted six innings was played. It was won by the regulars by a score of five to nothing. Bishop, Auer and Dell pitched for the winners, and Brown, Gordiner and Schupp worked for the losing side.

Janvrit, who played second for the Yankees, made a double and two singles. Myers made a double and a single and Neils hit deep for a triple. High was the regulars' lead-off man and played third.

Several more members of the team reported today. They were Otto Miller, Wallace Hood, Arthur Vance and Charlie Hockett. The last two are pitchers.

Squadron A Polo Team Loses to Brooklyn Trio

Troopers Are Defeated by 6 to 5 in Rookie Division.

Play in the Indoor Polo Association's annual championship tournament got under way last night in the Squadron A arena, when the Brooklyn Riders and Driving Club defeated Squadron A in the rookie division, 6 goals to 5. Twenty-two teams representing ten clubs, military organizations and colleges, are entered in the four divisions, rookie, junior, senior and intercollegiate.

Sackman, playing No. 2 for the Brooklynites, proved a big factor in his team's triumph. He put his club in the lead soon after the start of the opening chukker when he scored three successive goals, also bagged a goal during this chukker. This period closed with the Brooklyn team leading by 4 goals to 2. Lull and Brady accounted for Squadron A's scoring this stanza.

Sweeney and Davenport each scored a goal in the second chukker, while Cummings, the troopers' No. 2 man, rang up three.

Play will be continued to-night, when the New York Riders and Driving Club opposes the Third Squadron A team in the rookie division. The lineup:
